

Third & Final Family Day for SINGGALOT, The Ties That Bind
(History of the Filipino Diaspora in the US since the 1500's)
Saturday, October 1, 2011
10 am to 5 pm

Charlotte Museum, 3500 Shamrock Drive, Charlotte NC 28215

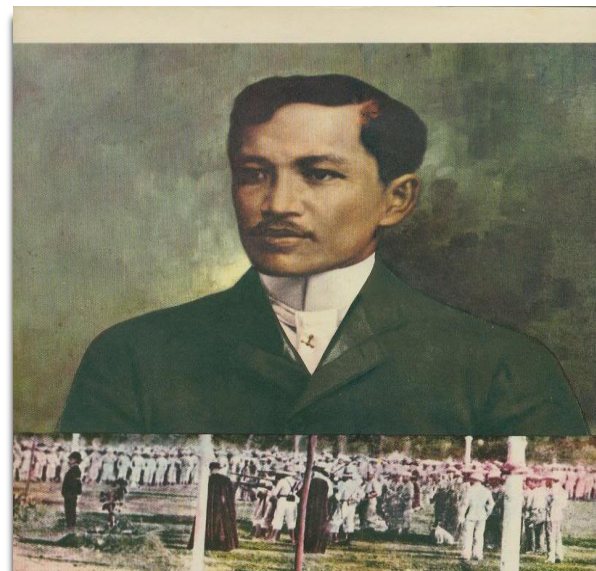

Philippine Cultural Legacy Series, partly funded by the Arts and Science Council and the Smithsonian Institute

HIGHLIGHTS

- ❖ Maharlika Dance Troupe of Fayetteville
- ❖ Master Class in Guitar & Intro to Rondalla by Maestro Michael Dadap
- ❖ Multicultural Asian Showcase
- ❖ Rizal, A Play by Richard Cordery...Vignettes in the Life of our National Hero
- ❖ Beyond "Adobo & Tinikling:" A Dialogue of Community Values,
Panel of Speakers with Dr. Chris Villapando, Moderator
- ❖ Classic Guitar Concert by Maestro Michael Dadap,
Artistic Director & Conductor, Childrens Orchestra Society of New York
- ❖ Videos: Oral History of Filipino Immigrants in the Carolinas; Filipiniana
Fashion Fiesta
- ❖ Slide show of Opening Day, Aug 13 and Sept 10 Family Day
- ❖ Your photo in Filipiniana, Crafts, Food Court
- ❖ For Kids & Non Kids: Vintage Interactive Games, Lessons in Tagalog &
Alibata (Tagalog script)
- ❖ Tinikling Dance Lessons
- ❖ Treasure Hunt, Puzzles That Teach, StoryTelling "Alamat", etc.

Dr. Nini RB Bautista : 704 583 9421 / ninibautista@aol.com
Dell Amor: 704 400 4928 / gamor@carolina.rr.com

www.facc-charlotte.com / facc.charlotte@gmail.com

Jose Rizal

Our National Hero (1861 - 2011)

Celebrating his 150th Birth Anniversary

Maestro Michael Dadap
Guitarist & Rondalla Advocate